OUR PASSION

Our passion for what we do paired with our key competence and expertise in our daily work is a core element of our identity as Ecclesia Re. A successful collaboration is based on a strong team spirit and one common goal: to provide the best possible service for our clients.

At Ecclesia Re, we pride ourselves on passion and expertise. These values are fundamental parts of our DNA.

As partners, we are dedicated and loyal to our clients building long-lasting relationships. Competence establishes trust, but it is passion that drives us to always give our best. Only those, who approach challenges with passion and competence, can provide reliable prospects, develop solutions together and achieve goals that exceed expectations.

This is how we achieve results that make a difference – not only within our customers, but also within our entire organization.

Because we rely on passion and expertise, we are far more than just a service provider to our clients: we are a reliable partner – in Germany, across Europe, and wherever you need us.

A POWERFUL GROUP

Ecclesia Re is part of the Ecclesia Group, the German leading insurance broker for corporates and institutions. Ecclesia Re was founded in Spring 2020. Together, the team has far more than "100 years of experience" in the reinsurance market.

The company is headquartered in Cologne. From here, Ecclesia Re operates in the global reinsurance world and is not subject to any limiting or influencing corporate guidelines from third countries. The Group's shareholders founded Ecclesia Re to ensure the best possible long-term and reliable risk protection for all their clients.

Ecclesia Re's daily work ethic is not focused on short-term profits. The focus is on supporting clients long-term-through expertise, trust and collaboration, Ecclesia Re aims to protect the customers' assets and assist in developing the best possible risk mitigation strategies.

As a reinsurance broker, it is Ecclesia Re's responsibility to shape the reinsurance market to expand insurance capacities and thus increase customer benefits.

All of Ecclesia Re's employees are dedicating their time to provide detailed risk analyses and modeling to enhance your risk transfer. The compelling knowledge of risk transfer strategies paired with Ecclesia Re's strong international approach, offers the clients access to the global reinsurance markets and successful reinsurance placements.

Ecclesia Re's knowledge and expertise span across the entire reinsurance spectrum – providing consulting services and placements in the Captive and ART areas, treaty reinsurance, developing individual facultative solutions and designing hybrid reinsurance concepts, that combine traditional and alternative reinsurance strategies.
